Note: Mayflower Mine was in hills west of Keetley.

Note: East Utah Mine is east of Keetley.

Notes: In Benny's Hollow; about $\frac{1}{3}$ up, was a spring.

There was a boarding house located. The mine workers for Vallejo & Sphinx mines, lived at this boarding house in Benjamin Ambler Norris's Hollow.

Benjamin used to hike up this hollow and over the hill into Deer Valley & thence into Park City for his groceries & supplies.

Later on, Samuel E Lowry did the same hike for the same purpose

Re: June Stewart

Dear Ray:

I appreciated seeing June Stewart the 1st of May, 1973, for evaluation of her back and left leg pain.

At the time of her examination the left pain was considerably improved and she had been at bed rest under your care. Certainly the description of leg pain sounds like a mechanical type nerve root irritation.

Review of the x-rays of her spine reveals degenerative changes in the lumbosacral joint and it is my feeling that the sciatica is secondary to the degenerative arthritis, rather than an acute herniated intervertebral disc.

I suggested that she obtain a lumbosacral corset and avoid all bending and lifting. I discussed the general care of her back with her and hope that she will be able to receive some help from her pain.

Thank you very much for allowing me to consult on this patient.

Sincerely,

S. WILLIAM ALLRED, M. D.
